KINDNESS PERSONIFIED.

Prof. Gentry, the trainer of the dogs and ponies which are to exhibit under a large tent on Jefferson street near the engine house, Monday and Tuesday nights, October 18 and 19, matinee Tuesday at 2 p. m., must be a very model of kindness. He has succeeded in educating his now famous company of dogs, ponies and monkeys by that method only, and has climbed the topmost round of the ladder as a trainer. The dogs and ponies readily go through their different and difficult acts with dash and vim that shows the spectators the kindness of their instructor, giving a unique and pleasing entertainment that is pleasing and attractive to all classes. Mr. Fuller wired the bank to refuse payment of the certificates of deposit if presented.

HOME AGAIN.

The Park Street Band returned home yesterday from Clifton Forge, where they went to attend a Confederate reunion in that place. While laying over in Buchanan they delighted the people of that town by rendering several pieces in their very efficient manner. The boys had a delightful time and all hands joined in voting the trip a success in every way.

MRS. MARTIN'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Martin, wife of T. J. Martin, will take place this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Catholic Church, at which time Requiem Mass will be celebrated, after which the remains will be interred in St. Andrew's Cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. Father Lynch.

NEW WATER COMPANY.

It was learned yesterday by a representative of The Times that the Roanoke and Vinton Water Company were quietly at work arranging for the detail work preliminary to the establishment of a plant for the purpose of watering Roanoke and Vinton. Beside the very large spring at Vinton it is also understood that a deal is on hand by which they will probably secure the Moomaw spring just on the outskirts of the city. This will give them a considerable supply and at the same time make things a little uncomfortable for a certain Roanoke monopoly which has heretofore had the exclusive business of supplying the city's water.

FAD PEPSIN GUM, two large packs for 5 cents at Massie's Pharmacy.

THE BELMONT REVIVAL.

The revival which has been in progress for the past two weeks in Belmont M. E. Church, South, closed last night. The pastor, Rev. W. D. Keene, has been assisted by Rev. G. T. D. Collins, of Vinton, and the meetings have been a great blessing to the community. A large number of conversions have resulted from the meeting, nearly all of whom will connect themselves with the Belmont Church. There will be a special service for the children of the church this morning at 10 o'clock and short addresses will be delivered by Rev. C. D. Bulla and the pastor, Rev. W. D. Keene.

CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL.

Owing to the night work now being done by many of the delegates it has been decided to hold the next meeting of the Central Trades and Labor Council on to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, in order that all may have an opportunity of participating in the consideration of several important and very urgent matters. Do not fail to attend. The meeting will be held at the usual place on Campbell avenue.

LEFT FOR CULPEPER.

Miss Fiezia Allison, of Fifth street s. w., left last night for Culpeper Court House to be absent about a year teaching music. She is a graduate of music from the Virginia College for Young Ladies. Her many friends will regret very much her departure.

Häyler's Bon Bons and mixed chocolates always fresh at factory prices. Massie's Pharmacy sole agents.

CAN'T FOOL THE CALF.

The superiority of the goods on exhibition at the store of the Bowdre Shoe Company is so apparent that they say in their ad. on the first page of The Times this morning that even a calf would know the leather used in the Bowdre shoes came from the proper source. No doubt about the shoes being right; so is the price. Their store is one of the best appointed in Virginia.

POLICE COURT.

There were only two fines imposed in the police court yesterday morning, amounting to $7, of which amount $5 was collected. The case of Ellen Eggleston for forcing an entrance into Penn's Hall was continued until this morning on account of the absence of a very material witness. A young white girl by the name of Mary Hall was sent on to the grand jury for stealing a gold watch from Mrs. Browning. The watch was stolen the latter part of May or the first of June and was only recovered a few days ago, as the girl had sold it to a Syrian for $1.35. It was valued at $70.

DEATH OF JUDGE STRONG.

On Sunday morning, October 10th, in the city of Raleigh, N. C., Judge George Vaughn Strong passed away, in the 71st year of his age. He was one of the ablest lawyers in the State, and will be greatly missed in the legal profession. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss, among them Mrs. Weston R. Gales of this city.

WILL BE A BATTLE ROYAL.

Twelve sturdy young men of athletic turn of mind, headed by Capt. Dave Bowman and calling themselves the Y. M. C. A. football team will go to Salem this afternoon to play a team picked from the Salem High School and Roanoke College. The game, no doubt, will be a good one, notwithstanding the lack of practice that the Y. M. C. A. team has had, as there is a good deal of rivalry between the two teams.

INSPECTING THE ROAD.

President Fink, F. J. Kimball, Jos. I. Doran and others returned yesterday afternoon from a trip over the western part of the road. They stopped at Hotel Roanoke and will leave this morning for Norfolk on a special train.

A ROYAL TREAT.

An extraordinary musical event and one that is bound to draw the attention of all who claim any sort of culture is the appearance here of Mme. Sofia Scalchi who comes to the Academy of Music on Wednesday, the 20th instant. Mme. Sofia Scalchi is the world-renowned contralto who has sung before more nobility and cultured people of the world than any artist of her time. She was at one time associated so closely with the triumphs of Patti that she became too much of a rival and had to be relegated to some other part of the globe when the capricious little soprano became jealous of the grand contralto. Scalchi has been the principal contralto of all the best opera houses in the world and it is only because there is no really grand opera in New York this winter that we are vouchsafed this treat. With the famous contralto is associated the magnificent prima donna soprano, Mlle. Toulouquet, who created a sensation last year by her superb voice and her singing. The Scalchi entertainment consists of giving grand opera with adequate artists and in full costume with scenery, paraphernalia, etc. An act of either "Faust," "Trovatore" or "Martha" will be given. The management will give whatever operas the public desires to hear and a word sent to the local manager will help matters considerably, for whatever opera gets the largest number of "requests" will be presented. Any of the operas will be given with Mme. Scalchi; Mlle. Toulouquet; Mlle. du Bedat; Sig. Guarini and Sig. Alberti in the cast.

ROGER & GALLET'S Extracts, Toilet Waters and Face Powders at Massie's Pharmacy.

NO ONE HAS BETTER.

Lots of them have not as good. We refer to the beautiful stock of goods carried by Overstreet & Thurman, at their commodious sa. e. rooms, 16 and 20 Campbell avenue s. w. A reference to their ad. on the fifth page of The Times this morning will disclose what they claim, and a visit to their double store will substantiate these claims. No one in Roanoke carries a handsomer line of carpets than this firm. Some of them are truly poems of harmony in coloring.

THEY HOPE FOR VICTORY.

The Alleghany Institute football team left last night for Lexington, where they will line up against the team from Washington and Lee University to-day. Alleghany is somewhat strengthened from what they were on last Saturday, though they will miss Captain Alende, who is laid up with a badly sprained foot from the game against Bellevue. They are also weakened by the loss of Harmon, their left end, who left some days ago ostensibly to go home and get some of his things and has never returned. The rest of the team are all in good condition and spirits and expect to put up the game of their lives and they all say that they will make the "Varsity" boys work to win, but that they are very hopeful of being able to carry off the palm of victory themselves. The Alleghany team will line up as follows: Withers, right end; Bentley, right tackle; Boston, right guard; Turner, center; Strader, left guard; Cunningham, left tackle; Peck, left end; A. K. Handy, quarter back; S. S. Handy, left half back; Ingles, right half back; Coe, substitute.

Frank Teller's "Chicos" is the most popular. Why? Because it is the best 5 cent cigar on the market. 6 for 25 cents. Only at VanLear Bros., druggists.

FOR A RECEIVER.

The argument for a receiver for the Traders' Trust Company will begin to-day in Judge Dupuy's court.
